A RIVER IN THE PACIFIC OCEAN.—It was left to Lieutenant Bent, of the United States Navy, an officer of much scientific merit, and who was attached to the expedition to Japan under Commodore Mathew C. Perry, to discover a river in the ocean—the Pacific—flowing northward and eastward along the coast of Asia, corresponding in every essential point with the Gulf Stream of the Atlantic, and impinging on the northwest coast of America—imparting its southern influence to the coast of Oregon and California, to that degree that the Winters are so mild in Puget Sound, in latitude forty-eight degrees north, that snow rarely falls there, and the inhabitants are never able to fill their ice houses for Summer; and per contra, the vessel trading to Petropaulovski, on the coast of Kamschatka, when becoming unwieldy from the accumulation of ice on their hulls and rigging, run over to a higher latitude on the American coast, and thaw out, in the same manner that sailing vessels, froze on the Atlantic coast of America, repair to the Gulf Stream, until favored by an easterly wind. The fountain of the great Pacific "river in the ocean," from which this stream springs, is the great equatorial current of the Pacific, which in magnitude is in proportion to the vast extent of that ocean, when compared with the Atlantic. It extends from the tropic of Cancer on the north, to Capricorn on the south, and has a width of near three thousand miles; and with a velocity of from twenty to sixty miles per day, it sweeps to the westward in uninterrupted grandeur, around three-eighths of the circumference of the globe, until diverted by the Continent of Asia, and split into innumerable streams by the Polynesian Islands.

THE GREAT REPUBLIC'S OFFICERS.—The trial of the officers of the Great Republic, on the charge of maltreating the sailors is not yet concluded. The Great Republic, as many of your readers will remember, is the immense ship, four-decked and four-masted, that was built as an experiment at the East, some years ago, to be subsequently razeed—after a partial destruction by fire—to dimensions more common to the seas. It had been better had she been cut down or burned down to the water's edge, sooner than she should have been spared to have the enormities enacted upon her which are revealed in the light of the present trial. Aside from beating the sailors, these brutes of officers seem to have indulged in blasphemies and obscenities forced upon the crew, under the narration of which one's pen stutters and staggers, and the indignant blood goes leaping through every vein. A Portugese was made to bite the cross he wore upon his breast between his teeth and read the Bible upside down, with leathern spectacles over his eyes. "Much of the testimony is unfit for publication," says the dailies. Does any one know what that means? Simply that the men were compelled to expose their persons upon the open deck, while the mates stood squirting tobacco-juice upon them and smearing them with filth. There is only one wonder in my mind when a case like this is made public. How can the swift lightnings sleep while such a demon ship is on the deep, when they shatter neighboring vessels on whose decks decency is observed and the laws of God and man respected? Again I wonder that the sailors under such circumstances do not band together when they get the monsters on shore and bring them before a Court from whose jurisdiction there is no appeal. For it does seem to me that had I been one of the sailors so treated I would hunt my inhuman persecutor from one end of the earth to the other, but that I'd make an end of him at last. Any one that does not think that in such cases it is justifiable to step a little outside the lex scripta and summon in behalf of outraged humanity the majesty of that unwritten law which was known and recognized before the tablets were passed upon Mount Sinai, which is coeval with the birth of man, and of which no man can rob him. Any one who does not think so can win money.—S. F. Cor. Union.

Rejoicings for Victory

The gorgeousness of the illumination on Wednesday evening, surpassed all expectation. Such beauty and grandeur of display Portland never witnessed before. Citizens and strangers alike declared that in a city of equal size, they never saw anything of the kind that approaches, in brilliancy or extent, the magnificent exhibition of that evening. The spontaneity of the effort on the part of our citizens shows how great is the exultation in this hour of triumph. From the moment the fall of Richmond was announced, there has been no effort to repress exclamations of gladness. For the past week, one announcement of joyful news has followed another in rapid succession, each giving additional fervor to the general enthusiasm; and when at last the lightning told us of the capture of Lee and his army, the effect was just as if the electric current that brought the news had reached each mind and thrown it into ecstasies by the tidings it bore.

This glorious consummation, achieved by the valor of our soldiers and by the skill and energy of our commanders, startled all loyal people because it came sooner than was expected. It brought also confusion and dismay to the minds of the abettors of treason—men who had hoped and declared such a result impossible. But though the overthrow of the military power of the rebellion was not looked for so soon, yet the fact of its accomplishment is not on that account a less, but a greater cause for joy. The announcement of the fact that the mighty efforts of the past four years had at last been brought to a culmination by a success more brilliant and complete than any, even the most sanguine, had dared to hope for, aroused all the enthusiasm of our people.

It was the anniversary of the fall of Sumter—the day on which the once proud but now humbled South Carolina defiantly threw down the gage of battle to the power against which she rebelled, and while she strove to destroy the Government to which she owed allegiance, invited and hastened her own doom. This has now become an anniversary which loyal men instead of traitors, celebrate. To traitors its recollection will be most bitter, and they who made that day historic by the commission of so foul a crime, will be held in execration by the people of their own section not less than by those of ours, forevermore.

The present is, indeed, a time for rejoicing. The consequences of the events of the past few days are of the greatest moment. None, now living will be likely to see anything of a similar character again. It does not happen to every generation to witness such important and glorious events. The whole nation rejoices because of its triumph, but it cannot exult in a manner commensurate with the great value of the victory it has achieved.

An English-Rebel View.—A person who styles himself "A Cavalry Officer," probably of the British army, is contributing to Blackwood a series of papers relating to what he saw in the camps and cities of the South during the year 1863. The views he expresses are precisely similar to those which emanate from the rebel newspapers and from Pollard, the historian (?.) This cavalry officer has evidently taken his opinions respecting our struggle from rebel sources, not suffering them to be modified even by his own observations. He reiterates obsolete stories of the unyielding fidelity of the negroes to their masters, and again finds room to maunder about the humane treatment and enviable condition of men in bondage. An English snob could of course see nothing objectionable in this hideous system of servitude. This writer, further convinces himself, and strives to convince others that the military power of the South is strong enough to secure its independence.

Many Englishmen, as well as rebels, are grievously disappointed to find that the South is powerless to resist longer. The crazy vaticinations of these envious aristocrats have come to nought, and they now find that after having demonstrated the problem of Southern Independence, the whole thing is reversed. These prophets would be astonished were they not possessed of too much stolidity to be startled at anything that could occur.

Daily Mail to Portland.—The following telegram from Senator Williams, was received last evening. It relates to a matter which more nearly than other, concerns every person in Oregon and in the Territories adjacent. The daily mail is not only a convenience, but a necessity. It must be continued. We shall recur to the subject again:

Washington, April 12, 1865.

Editor Oregonian: The contract between Lincoln and Portland with the California Stage Company expires June thirtieth (30). They have bid three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) for next year. Department won't pay it. Can't somebody else bid less? Think Department will pay two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000). Shall daily mail stop? GEO. H. WILLIAMS.

The Russo-American Telegraph.—By a telegram from Seattle, dated yesterday, we have information that the United States steamer Shubrick with Col. Bulkley on board, had arrived at that port from Sitka, and would proceed at once to San Francisco. The object of Col. Bulkley's visit to Sitka was to make arrangements with the Russian Government relative to the construction of the Northern Telegraph Line, and also to ascertain the feasibility of the route through which it is proposed the line shall pass. His conference with the authorities, both of the Russian and British possessions, was highly satisfactory. The line will be put up as fast as possible. The route has already been explored for a considerable distance. Col. Bulkley goes to San Francisco to complete his preparations.

At the Cascades.—A letter received from the Cascades informs us of the jubilant feeling that was awakened there by the reception of the late cheering news. The very Copperheads seemed to be converted from their impious faith. Many of them wanted to start immediately on the war path. The people of the Cascades had bonfires, illuminations, &c., in the evening, in celebration of the great news. Speeches were delivered. A collection amounting to $61 50 in coin was taken up for the Sanitary Commission and sent to the Treasurer at Portland.

Want of Postal Service.—The coast region north of the Columbia river sadly needs a more certain and efficient postal service. Shoalwater Bay, Gray's Harbor and the Chehalis country, are at present very illy supplied with mail facilities. There is much complaint among the people from this cause. We would gladly aid them if we could, but we fear that time, "which sets all things even," will have to be waited for to furnish them a remedy for the inconveniences to which they are subjected.

A thirty-two stamp mill has been erected at Bannack, Montana Territory. The rock upon which it is at work is worth four hundred dollars per ton, says the Montana Post.

DATES TO APRIL 10.

Particulars of the Pursuit of Lee.

The Herald's [illegible]

[illegible]

The Herald's correspondent with Sheridan recounts the movements of [illegible] in pursuit of Lee. [illegible] finally [illegible] from their position. A number of men were dismounted [illegible] removed and the [illegible] the enemy were at once [illegible] strewn with all sorts of [illegible]. Cannon and ammunition [illegible] in the woods. [illegible] rebel cavalry was [illegible] brigade and [illegible] scattered like a flock of sheep [illegible]. In this charge, Lieut. Custis, [illegible] general, got detached from his command and [illegible] in with a rebel [illegible] Col. [illegible] brigade about the same [illegible] each side of the road [illegible] more rebels [illegible] up the first brigade. [illegible] passed over, many [illegible] a large quantity of ammunition being gathered up. [illegible] concluded to make a stand. Our cavalry prepared for the charge, when a strong force of rebel infantry was discovered in the rear. [illegible] fought bravely, falling back [illegible] when the rebels were again driven and closely followed until night set in. The rebels were thus driven back twenty-two miles, [illegible] at every point and losing many men, guns, wagons, etc. Our whole loss was not fifty. On April the 7th the march was resumed [illegible] afternoon, when the enemy were overtaken and skirmishing ensued, which continued [illegible].

Admiral Porter in the James River.

Washington, April 1[illegible].—Admiral Porter's reports to the Navy Department his recent operations on the James river. On learning [illegible] that the rebels were about to evacuate Richmond, he proceeded to remove the obstructions in the James river, succeeding in getting a channel through. He then accompanied the President to the city, when he found the rams all blown up except an unfinished ram—the Texas, and a small tug gunboat, the Beaufort. The following vessels were destroyed: Virginia, flagship, with 4 guns; Richmond, iron clad, 4 guns; Fredericksburg, ironclad, 4 guns; Nansemond, wooden ship, 2 guns; Hampton, wooden ship, 2 guns; Roanoke, wooden ship, 1 gun; Torpedo, a tender; and a schooner. Some of these may be raised. The Texas and Beaufort he has taken [illegible]. The Tredegar Iron Works and naval ordnance depot were unchanged.

Talk of an Amnesty Proclamation.

Washington, April 10.—The National Intelligencer says: We learn from a reliable source that Judge Campbell called upon the President at Richmond and urged him to issue a proclamation of a conciliatory character, expressing his belief that it would have, at this time, a salutary effect. The President, however, was not then prepared for the step. It was reasonable to suppose he would decline acting upon this subject while Grant was pressing upon Lee's retreating forces. That the President will now adopt this course, there seem reasons for believing.

Holiday at Washington—Rumors about Jeff. Davis.

Washington, April 10.—The Departments are all closed today; every body is keeping holiday. Stanton expresses the opinion that there will be no more heavy fighting. It is expected here that Johnston will surrender. Lincoln has returned and is closeted with his Cabinet. There is reason to believe that Jeff. Davis was at Danville, Va., on the 8th, trying to join Johnston with the archives of the late rebel Government and a large amount of specie.

Reliable information from a gentleman who left Richmond yesterday says that Gen. Shepley, by order of the President, has given a safe conduct to R. M. T. Hunter to come and go from that city. He is supposed to be on his estate, in Essex county, 50 miles from Richmond.

There were no prayers offered in the churches yesterday for the President, and none for the Confederacy.

Rebels Evacuate Raleigh.

Goldsboro, (N. C.) April 6.—Deserters and refugees report the evacuation of Raleigh, and that the enemy were throwing up works on Tar river, on Rocky Mount, about 40 miles from here towards Weldon on the Weldon and Wilmington Railroad. The enemy were burning bridges on the road and carrying off the rails. It is thought that Johnston will go to the relief of Lee. His army is much demoralized.

Operations in Alabama.

Pensacola, March 30.—Gen. Asboth, commanding the military district of West Florida, has just informed me that Gen. Steele met a decided success, having captured on the 25th March the rebel Gen. Clanton, who is mortally wounded, taking 250 prisoners, seized two railroad trains at Evergreen, ten miles above Pollard, on the Montgomery railroad, and torn up and destroyed the railroad track both at Evergreen and Pollard. Gen. Steele also reports Davis was marching on Blakely Miss.

(Signed) S. N. ARMSTRONG, Com'd.

St. Alban Raiders Released.

Toronto, April 10.—The raiders were brought before the Court this morning and all discharged except Young, who was committed for trial.

Missouri State Convention.

St. Louis, March 10.—The final vote of the State Convention on the New Constitution was taken on Saturday, and resulted [illegible] to [illegible] against. It is to be submitted to the people on the 6th of June. If ratified it goes into effect on the 4th of July. The Convention adjourned sine die after a session of seventy-eight days.

New York, April 10.—The steamer which was to sail tomorrow for Liverpool was dispatched this afternoon at four o'clock, in order to take the news of Lee's capitulation.

The Commercial's dispatch says: An order will be sent to the Generals everywhere to open communication with the commanders of the rebels in their front, and offer the same terms which were accepted by Lee. No difficulty is anticipated except in Texas.

Mosby's Men Disbanding.

New York, April 10.—The Tribune's special says: Three companies of Mosby's guerrillas [illegible] on the [illegible] their homes. Mosby [illegible] now mostly operating on the [illegible] down [illegible].

The Herald's City Point special, under date of April 8th, says: Supplies were taken by rail yesterday as far as [illegible] miles from Petersburg. [illegible] were all taking loads last [illegible] the army tomorrow. A large force [illegible] work on the track and expect [illegible] Tuesday [illegible].

Probable Loss of the Ship Black Prince.

Boston, April 10.—[illegible] schooner Eliza from [illegible] on the outward passage she fell in with the ship Black Prince from San Francisco [illegible] Boston, short of provisions and leaking, and having three feet of water in her hold. [illegible] The next day the schooner [illegible] a tremendous gale, and the ship has not since been heard of. There is no doubt she foundered and all on board perished.

California News.

San Francisco, April 1[illegible].—Currency [illegible] for exchange to-day [illegible] per cent. [illegible] closed at [illegible] during the [illegible].

Judge [illegible] to-day sentenced [illegible] the Great Republic as follows: [illegible] the County Jail for each offense [illegible] guilty, and for the [illegible] sentence [illegible] months in the County Jail and [illegible].

R. W. Heath, formerly engaged [illegible] dealer, and now a stock broker, failed to-day.

Both steamers go crowded with passengers.

[illegible]

Rebel Prisoners at Camp Douglas.—The following account from a correspondent of the condition of the rebel prisoners at Chicago refutes the absurd stories of their bad treatment circulated by the secession journals in and out of the Confederacy:

Gaining admittance into the "rebel square," I found sixty rows of barracks, four separate buildings in a row. These are all built of wood and stand upon piles, about four feet from the surface of the prairie. Each house has a kitchen attached, in which the rebels cook. The bread is baked in [illegible], but by rebel bakers. It is the same used by the soldiers comprising the garrison—good, fresh bread. About fifteen thousand pounds are consumed daily. In several of the kitchens I saw [illegible] biscuits and Indian corn bread baking for supper. The materials for making the latter were probably purchased at the sutler's, and not supplied by the Government.

In [illegible] the kitchens were stands where the rebel [illegible] worked. The money received for whatever the rebels make does not go directly into their hands, but in the hands of the prisoners' accountant, and they can draw upon this fund at the sutler's. If any remains they take it with them when exchanged. The rings made in the "rebel square" are exceedingly unique and tasteful. The rubber forming the body of the ring is supplied by the prisoners' sutler, while gold and silver [illegible] form the decorations. In some cases pearl from the oyster shell is skillfully inlaid. Many who work thus, state that before being taken prisoners they had been farmers. A great variety of articles are made from bone—knives, forks, spoons, tooth-picks—all carved with great skill and cunning.

The prisoners have an abundance of food, wood and [illegible], and the only thing they have to complain of is being penned in a square about the size of the Public Garden in Boston. At present there are about 12,000 prisoners. Quite a stir was visible, among them at the news of an exchange, all hoping their state would be represented. Outside of the "rebel square" there is a rebel hospital, in every way commodious and comfortable.

One sees some amusing sights in the "square." Here one who has [illegible] ball and chain, has made [illegible] a cart for the ball, and so gets [illegible]; there one caught making [illegible] in the delusive hope of [illegible], is compelled for a certain number of days to come up and down the [illegible] barracks; he is [illegible] who gives him no rest. Here, a savage looking Texan is seen eagerly scanning the list of arrivals by express. He has done the [illegible] for eighteen months; and so on. As the gate closed upon me and I passed through the [illegible] Garden City, I could not but feel that there is a just God who rules over all, and His way, though unsearchable, are yet full [illegible]. The cry of pain and suffering from Andersonville was in this answered somewhere at one time. Look on this picture and then on that.

State Finances.—We are enabled to make the following statement of the amount and kind of taxes assessed in the different counties, and [illegible] the State, by the last Assessment Roll. There is a little discrepancy in the case of Multnomah county, between the value of the property as stated and the assessment thereon, arising from the fact that the two items were taken from the reports of different officers:

[illegible]

"A young lady, an orphan, living and teaching school in Huntingdon county, a few days ago received a letter from Virginia, that her brother, who was a soldier in the Union army, had been killed in 1862. She hastened to the South, secured his remains, had them brought home and buried. Ever since, alone in the world and so sadly bereaved, she has mourned her dead brother. A week ago she received a letter from Annapolis, from her brother, who is alive and a paroled prisoner. Such is the romance and reality of war.—Harrisburgh Telegraph.

Chaplain [illegible] sends from the [illegible] of Fort Fisher, a copy of the Southern Presbyterian, which he picked up there. It is deeply stained [illegible] with human blood. The paper is dated Augusta, Georgia, December [illegible] and contains [illegible] in large capitals.

One evening during a recent storm, a wife was out visiting [illegible], and when she appeared [illegible] on her return, her husband pretended [illegible]. She threatened to jump into the well if he did not open the door. Having no idea she would do so, he obstinately refused [illegible] she took a log [illegible] into the well, and simultaneously with the splash [illegible] she placed herself [illegible] the door [illegible] soon as he [illegible] rushed out [illegible] clothes, she entered and locked the door, and [illegible] of that she did not [illegible] till he was penitent, and then let him in.

CELEBRATION

BY THE

INDEPENDENT ORDER OF

ODD FELLOWS!

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 26TH, 1865.

By authority granted by the M. W. Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Oregon, and the M. W. Grand Patriarch of the Grand Encampment of California, the members of Samaritan Lodge and Ellison Encampment of this city, in conjunction with the members of the contiguous Lodges and Encampments in this jurisdiction, propose to have a Celebration in this city on the 26th instant, in commemoration of the 46th Anniversary of Odd Fellowship in the United States.

The principal features in the proposed Celebration will be a public procession of members of the Order in full regalia, led by music, from their Hall through the principal streets of the city to the M. E. Church, where an Address will be delivered, and other appropriate ceremonies take place; upon the conclusion of which the procession will proceed to the upper story of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company's Warehouse, which will be appropriately fitted up and decorated, where a dinner will be served, and other appropriate festivities will terminate the exercises of the day.

All members of the Order in good standing are respectfully invited to co-operate with us on that occasion, and those desiring to do so are requested to report themselves to the Committee of Arrangements.

ROUTES AND DISTANCES.—At this particular season of the year people generally are very anxious to know the distances to the various mining camps. We not long since corrected the errors of Capt. Pierce or rather the misstatements of that individual concerning the distances from San Francisco to Portland, and to-day we give the correct tables from this city to various points east of the Cascades, as follows:

	Miles.
From Portland to Cascades (Lower)	[illegible]
" to Cascades (Upper)	[illegible]
" to Dalles City	[illegible]
Boats and cars every day.
" to Umatilla Landing	[illegible]

Stages run regularly.

From Idaho City, by trail, to South Boise, the distance is a little less than fifty miles. During high water, steamers of the O. S. N. Company will ply regularly between Wallula and Lewiston. They are now making semi-weekly trips. The distance is 160 miles. The distance from Walla Walla to Fort Benton, by way of Lt. Mullan's wagon Route, is given at 618 miles.

We notice that the Red Bluff Independent is still harping upon the one string, of the route by that city from San Francisco and Sacramento, to Owyhee. Their article is almost literally from Captain Pierce. Can there be [illegible] it is that Captain Pierce never travels the [illegible]. His statements do not agree with his actions. He generally passes Portland, on his travels to and from California to the "Northern mines," and on his last trip down, left his autograph with a certain merchant in this city, under a date which strikingly corresponds with the time when he, if [illegible] by the Independent, was "looking out the route to Idaho via Red Bluff."

[illegible] OF THE EVENING.—On Wednesday night there were very many attractive features of the illumination and decorations, omitted in our report, in consequence of the late hour at which the exercises closed. We should not again refer to them; only from the fact that it was on an event such as had never before been celebrated in Portland, and not likely to occur again soon, as we believe our people could never excel the splendid display let them try ever so hard. Between Harrison street and the Gas Works, a distance of over a mile, three streets, Front, First and Third, with a great part of Second street, all running parallel with each other, and the cross streets filling in between the same space, was, so to speak, literally on fire. Scarcely a house was to be seen that had not some sort of an illumination, while many of them were gorgeously bedecked in flaming lights. The Stars and Stripes, Red, White and Blue lanterns, etc., etc., with appropriate mottoes [illegible] each individually, would take in utterly every [illegible] and citizen doing business, except a few who had no part for rejoicing on the great events which sent a thrill to the rebel Confederacy, and betokened peace to a [illegible] country. Bonfires lighted up the street at convenient distances from each another, and tar barrels, pitch and turpentine sent up such a volume of smoke as to almost obscure the heavenly light of a full-orbed moon, which descended upon the scene to add lustre to its charms. Dared we to venture upon the attempt to particularize the arrangements, the peculiarities, the grace and the taste displayed by those who volunteered to do themselves and the city credit on this great occasion, we should fail utterly and with a due sense of pride for the generosity, the patriotism, and good feeling of our citizens generally, we shall ever retain the scene in memory, where all will agree they must be securely stereotyped.

GOOD FRIDAY AND EASTER SUNDAY.—This being Good Friday, the after to-morrow will be Easter Sunday, the annual festive day of the Christian Church, in commemoration of the Savior's resurrection. Old Monkish writers of the early day, in England's Ecclesiastical history, attributed Easter to be the estast of the [illegible] Easter, is derived from the Goddess of Love, or Venus of the North, in honor of whom a festival was celebrated by our pagan ancestors, in April, whence the month was called Eostermonath. It answers to the pascha feast of the Hebrews; and most nations still give it this name. A good way to determine the recurrence of Easter with certainty, is to refer to the calendar and after finding the 21st of March, next look for the first full moon date, then the first Sunday thereafter will be Easter. It usually falls in April, but not invariably.

[illegible].—The citizens of Vancouver, wishing to visit Portland on Wednesday night in considerable numbers, and participate in the general rejoicing, the ladies of the Sanitary Commission at that place chartered the steamer Fannie Troup for the occasion, and realized a sum of nearly one hundred dollars for the benefit of the band who have accomplished such great results for the nation's honor and integrity. The steamer carried a number on board, and the excursionists were accompanied by a regimental band from the Fort, and between the two the banks of the Columbia and the Willamette were made to echo the sounds of rejoicing. It was a pleasant trip and resulted in much good.

[illegible].—Our affable friend H. is about to leave [illegible], so that is not the cause of our saying Good [illegible], far from it—we were about to relate one of his jokes. Speaking of the illumination some one in the crowd—there were two of us—wonderingly asked if he thought Southern cities were rejoicing in this manner. "Why, thought they were, for all that," "it is time they began to light up on their rebellion?" We believe [illegible] liable for the following conundrum: Why [illegible] like the Southern Confederacy? Because [illegible] "gone up."

[illegible] delights in having the best bivalves, the most excellent coffee, and the choicest game, that can be set before the patron of an Oyster Saloon. Fox is a great friend to the Printers, whenever he has any thing a little extra, (which, by the by has been rather common for years,) he always sends a specimen around to the boys, to take proof of. It is generally found to need little alteration to fit it for a place on the inside of the human form. Such was the case yesterday, and if you should desire to prove the matter to [illegible], read F. Muller's card, in another column, and act upon what it suggests.

[illegible] ILLUMINATION.—Sitting upon the platform during the speaking on Wednesday night, we saw a very handsome illumination in the direction of the Academy and Female Seminary, which was for a private residence, it proved to be the [illegible], which was finely illuminated by Prof. [illegible] and students combined.

[illegible] A FIRE.—Officer Townsend discovered a fire that would have been, on First street, after the festivities of last night, which he soon succeeded in extinguishing, and was fortunately the only circumstance of the kind happening, that has come to our knowledge. It was the great precaution duty of individuals illuminating, that prevented a conflagration, where so many hundred pounds of tallow, wicking, oil, etc., was used in lighting the city.

EAST PORTLAND.—The rapidly rising and enthusiastic village across the river, did not fail to illuminate on Wednesday night. Our neighbors can congratulate themselves on making a really fine appearance on that occasion. A large number of citizens from there also visited this side of the Willamette, and assisted to make up the [illegible]. The ferry boat was kept running almost all night.

A HEAVY FALL.—Yesterday afternoon's man attempted to pick his hat up from the street, without dismounting from a horse upon which he was riding, and received a very heavy fall, by the horse jumping to one side turning the saddle under him. The animal then dashed wildly through the streets, and was not caught for some time. It proved to be poor economy—that style of picking up a hat.

THE RIGHT NAME.—We intended no opprobrium to Mr. George W. Maxwell yesterday, in our allusion to the [illegible] feat performed by him in climbing the flag staff in front of Willamette Engine House No. 1. He is very commonly called Kanaka George, at other times [illegible], but his real name is as given above. Although born at the Sandwich Islands, George can boast of his [illegible], and his antecedents hailing from the highlands of Scotland.

PICTURES OF THE SCENE.—Mr. Buchtel, of Woodard's Gallery, in Vaughn's block, and Mr. Hendee, of the Gallery opposite this office, secured views of Front street on Wednesday, after the preparations for the illumination had been made. Mr. Buchtel has a series of three views, including some of the most prominent attractions. Copies can be procured at the galleries, and there will no doubt be a great demand for them.

THE ENTERTAINMENT OF MISS DIVINE.—A very fair audience witnessed the entertainment given at Willamette Theatre last evening by Miss Divine, assisted by numerous others, amateurs and professional performers. The evening was passed very pleasantly by the audience [illegible]

ANOTHER CONCERT.—We understand it is the [illegible] of many of the prominent citizens, that the late Concert of vocal and instrumental music given at Turn Verein Hall, be repeated by the Germania Society, assisted by amateurs, under the direction of Prof. Yost. Due notice will be given of the time, and the entertainment of the highest order.

SOIREE TO-NIGHT.—Mr. Birnbaum gives a social party to-night at Parrish's Hall. Good music will be in attendance, and a pleasant time is anticipated.

DIED:

In this city, April 12th, Mary Elizabeth Stratton, niece of Miss Kate Gaffney and Mrs. Julia McDermott, aged 5 years and 16 days.

The remains will be taken from the Chapel of the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary at 2 o'clock P. M. to-day (Good Friday) to the Catholic Cemetery, East Portland, and deposited in the tomb of her dear and beloved parents, George A. and Rose Ann Stratton. The friends are invited to attend.

"Take Physic, Pomp," is the injunction of the immortal SHAKSPEARE. Had he lived in our day, he would have said:—"Take NEWELL'S PULMONARY SYRUP," all you who are troubled with coughs, colds, asthma, whooping cough, or any pulmonary difficulty.
DELAY NOT then to heed this injunction, & timely use of this remedy will SAVE many precious LIVES.

Brandreth's Pills—Their Qualities.—In small and repeated doses the effect of Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills is to increase the activity of the secreting and excreting organs. The saliva discharged becomes more liquid and contains a larger proportion of bile. The operation of this extraordinary medicine does not stop here, the membranes of the lungs, of the eyes, and all the membranes become moister, the skin becomes damper and at the same time warmer where too cold, and cooler if too warm. So that Brandreth's Pills seem to vitalize and promote excretions generally. In large doses say from 6 to 10 Pills, they act as a powerful purgative, clearing the bowels first of their contents and then acting upon the internal organs, cleansing them of slime, humors, or any collection not required to their healthy action. Thus the action of Brandreth's Pills is what is required to bring about that state in all the organs which result in their full restoration to health. The blood vessels, as well as the blood, are thus restored to perfect purity and vigor.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED
STOMACH BITTERS,
THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE REMEDY upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is eminently soothing and conservative. It regulates, restores and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its [illegible] and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.
Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutritious fluids and nutritious flesh, a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters
Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal fluids which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.
The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.
Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy invigorant. For Indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A Word to the Aged!
In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the Aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.
As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females:
Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and enlivens the depressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its action is never followed by any reaction.

WISTAR'S BALSAM
OF
HAS BEEN USED FOR NEARLY HALF A CENTURY,
WITH THE MOST ASTONISHING SUCCESS IN CURING
Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Liver Complaint, Bronchitis, Difficulty of Breathing, Asthma, and every affection of the THROAT, LUNGS AND CHEST, INCLUDING EVEN CONSUMPTION.

There is scarcely one individual in the community who wholly escapes, during a season, from some one, however slightly developed, of the above symptoms—a neglect of which might lead to the last named, and most to be dreaded disease in the whole catalogue. The power of "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree over this class of complaints is well known; so great is the good it has performed, and so great the popularity it has acquired.

In this preparation, besides the virtues of the Cherry, there are commingled with it other ingredients of like value, thus increasing its value ten fold, and forming a Remedy whose power to soothe, to heal, to relieve, and to cure disease, exists in no other medicine yet discovered.

The unequalled success that has attended the application of this medicine in all cases of

PULMONARY COMPLAINTS,
has induced many physicians of high standing to employ it in their practice, some of whom advise us of the fact under their own signatures. We have space only for the names of a few of these:—

S. H. FINLEY, M. D., San Francisco, Cal.
E. BOYDEN, M. D., Exeter, Me.
ALEXANDER HATCH, M. D., China, Me.
R. FELLOWS, M. D., Hill, N. H.
W. H. WEBB, M. D., Cape Vincent, N. Y.
W. B. LYNCH, M. D., Auburn, N. Y.
ABRAHAM SKILLMAN, M. D., Boundbrook, N. J.
H. D. MARTIN, M. D., Mansfield, Pa.

The proprietors have letters from all classes of our fellow citizens, from the halls of Congress to the humblest cottage, and even from beyond the sea; for the fame and virtue of WISTAR'S BALSAM have extended to the uttermost bounds of the earth, without any attempt on our part to introduce it beyond the limits of our own country.

TO CALIFORNIANS AND OREGONIANS.
After October 1, 1863, all genuine WISTAR'S BALSAM of WILD CHERRY for the Pacific Coast will be enclosed in a new wrapper which will bear the printed names of both SETH W. FOWLE & Co., Boston, Mass., and JOHN D. PARK, Cincinnati, Ohio, as well as fac-simile of the signatures of "L. BUTTS," "SANFORD & PARK," and "H. WISTAR, M. D."

Cure Your Cold, Save Your Lungs.
NEWELL'S
PULMONARY SYRUP
HAS CURED THOUSANDS!
And it will Cure You!

A Cough is generally the effect of a Cold, which has either been improperly treated or entirely neglected. When it proves obstinate there is Always reason to fear the consequences, as this shows a weak state of the lungs, and is often the forerunner of Consumption.—Buchanan's Domestic Medicine.

STOP THAT COUGHING!
Some of you can't, and we pity you. You have tried every remedy but the one destined by its intrinsic merit, to supersede all similar preparations. It is not surprising you should be reluctant to try something else after the many experiments you have made of trashy compounds foisted on the public as a certain cure; but

NEWELL'S
Pulmonary Syrup!
Is really the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Consumption. Thousands of people in California and Oregon have been already benefited by its surprising curative powers.

WHAT KILLED HIM?
Dr. Hall, in his "Journal of Health," speaking of the death of Washington Irving, asks the above question, and adds: "He might have remained with us for some years longer had it not been for [illegible], no doubt, [illegible] given in its [illegible] and reckless ignorance.
He Had a Cold!
Which, by some injudicious prescription, had been converted into asthma." Let me say to Dr. Hall that that "prescription" was not

NEWELL'S
PULMONARY
SYRUP.
KEEP IT IN THE HOUSE, use it freely, give it to your children upon the slightest indications of a Cold, and you will thank and speak of it as all those who have become acquainted with its merits.

Jeff Davis Threatens a Bloody Guerrilla Warfare.

The Richmond Sentinel (Jeff. Davis' personal organ) of the 18th of February, indulges in the following strain to fire the Southern heart:

"Woe to the conquered! for submission will not bring about peace, nor even inaugurate a truce. A few may submit, and bow their necks to the yoke, which the Yankees will impose. The latter already assume that a State is subjugated when a tenth of its people agree to its reconstruction. Whenever and wherever this may happen confiscation will begin. Loyal landholders will be driven from their farms, and Yankee intruders will occupy them. No matter whose farm is coveted, it will be easy to suborn Yankee witnesses, and still easier to buy up disloyal Southerners, for they are baser and more venal than Yankees, to prove that the owner of the desired property is untrue to the North. Soon, very soon, all the lands of the submitting States would pass into the hands of northern landlords. Spies and informers, in swarms, would infest the community, eaves-dropping, searching houses, and dogging the heels of every Southron. In the various villages and cross roads Yankee troops, black and white, would be stationed to watch, insult, and rob the ejected Confederates. The craven spirited submissionists would then become hirelings and farm hands for the Yankee landlords, at the rates of wages depressed alike by Northern cruelty and cupidity, and negro competition. These landlords would exultingly and truly proclaim that 'free labor was cheaper than slave labor.'

And so it would be; for they would not pay any wages to white laborers, taking their families all round, one-half the usual allowances to slaves. All the out-cry against slavery proceeds from the fact that 'free labor is cheaper than slave labor;' as in free society the land holders, house-owners and other capitalists, by starving the poor, soon force them to work for less allowance than a humane master freely concedes to his slave. Hunger, cold and nakedness are as efficient physical coercives as hickories. Capital, like a master, commands labor, but is not at the responsibility or cost of owning it. It only allows the laborer a portion of his own earnings, and a smaller portion than masters allow their slaves; and hence, and hence only, free labor is cheaper than slave labor. Capital of all kinds is a mere instrument employed by its owners to compel the poor to work, and to pay each other; for capital does not work, is not a producer, and all useful products, or values, are the result of labor. The rich throughout free society are masters without the humane feelings or interests of masters. All attempts to remedy the seeming injustice of domestic slavery, have but aggravated the evil intended to be cured; for throughout the world, it is admitted, nay it is the boast, that 'free labor is cheaper than slave labor,' which is exactly tantamount to saying that 'the allowance of the slave is greater than the wages paid, or rather allowed, the free laborer.'

But let us return from this digression. 'Let not the few dastardly submissionists among us try to deceive themselves, or to deceive others, by pretending that the Yankee rule, after all, would not be so intolerable; but would be only the exchanging one form of political government for another. The whole lands of the South would not repay the North for the cost of conquest, and those lands, if successful, they are determined to have. Then the Southern submissionist would be reduced to a state of slavery more degrading, cruel and exacting than ever before was imposed on human beings. 'Væ victis!'—woe to the conquered who would have so terrible a fate to endure; but woe also to the conquerors, for their calamity would begin! The condition to which they would reduce our people is one which nine-tenths of them would never endure. They would take to the bush, like the Israelites under Moses or Joshua, and a part of them under David; like our Seminole Indians; like the Scotch and Welsh (we speak metaphorically, for Scotland does not boast of trees or thickets), who have never been conquered; like the Swiss, the Spaniards, the Circassians, the Dutch, the La Vendeans; like all people inhabiting mountainous or desert or marshy countries. This war would be only fairly begun when our houses, our inclosures, our villages and cities are burned, our crops destroyed and our fields laid waste. Then woe to the conquerors! for then would begin the banditti warfare, the guerilla warfare, the lying in wait, the ambuscade and surprise, murder in detail, assassination in every form. Already much of our country is rapidly growing up in dense forest; roads have become impassible for wheel carriages; cattle and hogs in large droves are running wild; our woods and our fields teem with game, and our creeks and rivers with fish and fowl. The voluntary fruits of our soil, added to the resources just enumerated, would enable us to carry on a guerilla warfare almost interminably; for these resources increase daily, just as the devastations of the enemy extend.

If our affairs should come to the worst, and if we should not be able to maintain large regular armies in the field, we would, by guerrilla warfare, make the South too hot to hold Yankee intruding landlords. They would be watched, ambushed, and shot down by day, like beasts of prey. Few, who would find themselves, their wives and little ones driven from their homes, would hesitate, if necessary, to waylay the Yankee robber. No armies from the North could put down such a warfare as this, if we fight but half as well as most other nations similarly situated have fought. Already this mode of warfare has been inaugurated in Kentucky, Missouri, Tennessee, and on both sides of the Mississippi. Indeed, we have guerrillas everywhere, doing most effective service. Like Rhoderick Dhu's men, concealing themselves to-day in fastnesses and secret places, and to-morrow at the winding of their chieftain's horn, or agreed signal, collecting together and bursting unexpectedly upon the enemy, with the force and rapidity of the thunderbolt. The cavalry of the Blue Ridge are as terrible as the clansmen of Rhoderick Dhu. And let not craven submissionists suppose that they would be exempted from the horror of this new mode of warfare. Being more obnoxious than Yankees, they would be its first victims. Let them recollect the treatment of captured tories in the revolution of 1776, and take timely warning from their fate. Did not a blind madness drive the Yankees on, they would recoil with just terror from that result which we have but faintly sketched, but to attain which they are striving with a frantic eagerness, as if it were their highest good. Nothing remains for us but, taking for our watchword 'Never surrender!' to prosecute the war in whatever form we may and with whatever energy we can command, until we drive out our foes from this fair land which God has given us."

Who is the author of the following couplet:

"Count that day lost whose low declining sun
Sees at thy hand no worthy action done."

An exchange says: "Great efforts have been made to ascertain the authorship of this couplet, but hitherto without success. A gentleman in Cambridge advertises it twice a year in the Boston papers and offers a reward to any one who will discover the name of the writer who first gave it to the world. Similar advertisements have also appeared in the English Journals."

Notice.

SEALED PROPOSALS IN "DUPLICATE," WILL be received at the Office of the undersigned until 12 o'clock M., Saturday, April 29th, 1865, for furnishing (250) two hundred and fifty head of Beef Cattle for the U. S. Subsistence Department in the District of Oregon, said "Beef Cattle" to be of good and marketable quality, and to be delivered at Fort Dalles, Oregon, on or before the first day of May, 1865. Any parties desirous of seeing the above mentioned lock, its insecurity and easy mode of opening the same, can call at 318 Battery Street, San Francisco.

GLOUCESTER, March 22, 1864.

Messrs. TILTON & McFARLAND,
Safe Manufacturers, Boston, Mass.

Gentlemen: From representations made by Mr. Lillie, I was induced to purchase of him one of his

So Called "Fire Proof Safes."

On the 18th of February last, a fire occurred in our block which destroyed a number of buildings, and our own with the rest. We trusted our books, papers and all in the safe. After the fire the so called "safe" was taken from the ruins, and on opening it we found that Everything had been Destroyed.

We send you the safe, with what is left of the papers, and you will see that not one of them is legible or strong enough to sustain its own weight. Having these closely to know how our neighbors fared in this fire, we obtained McKenzie & Hardy just opening their safe (TILTON & McFARLAND'S make) and its contents were found to be

In Perfect Condition.

This led us to further investigation, and we found to our astonishment that from the large amount of combustible material in Messrs. McK. & H.'s cellar—such as lard, pork, etc., their safe was subjected to a much greater heat than that of our own, we being in the clothing business and had but little in the cellar. There was another of Lillie's safes here subjected to the same fire faring, however no better than ours.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servants,
(Signed.) GEO. L. CHESBORO & CO.

TILTON & M'FARLAND'S
SAFE,
The Only Protection

Against Fire and Burglars.

For the last Fifteen Years

This Safe has been well known in California and the Eastern States. They have resisted all the fires on the Pacific Coast, and we can point with satisfaction to the record, that out of one of our Safes by means of Burglars. Their fire and burglar proof qualities are so well known that they need no further recommendation.

No Man ever Lost a Dollar

A good assortment of Tilton & McFarland's Fire and Burglar Proof Safes to be had at 318 Battery Street, San Francisco.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it, the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once refraced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom of an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL
URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females,

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.

ALLEN'S
LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION; IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

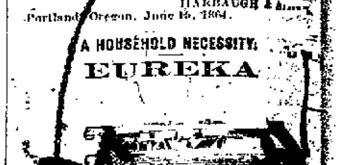
EUREKA



IMPROVED SELF-ADJUSTING

CLOTHES WRINGER,

AWARDED THE FIRST PREMIUM

AT OREGON STATE FAIR IN 1864.

Abstract from Examining Committee's Report at the San Francisco "MECHANICS' INSTITUTE" INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION, OF 1864:

"CLOTHES WRINGERS.—A variety of these excellent Household Helps were found competing for public favor. Though none of them are entitled to a Premium, we consider the EUREKA, exhibited by M. E. Traver & Bro., worthy of honorable mention." (Note.—Premiums were awarded to articles of Eastern manufacture.)

The EUREKA CLOTHES WRINGERS are superior to all others in CONVENIENCE and DURABILITY by the use of

PATENT ELLIPTICAL STEEL SPRINGS

Which produce a UNIFORM PRESSURE upon Articles and Clothes of every size.

The IMPROVED EUREKA has the HINGE CLAMP, which will fit any Tub or Box perfectly. Its action is simple and excellent. Every Family should have one. It will soon RE-PAY ITS COST IN SAVING Time Labor and Clothes. M. E. TRAVER & BRO., Oakland, Cal.

THE SAME OLD GREENBACK CASE!

I AM STILL COMPELLED TO ACCEPT OF LEGAL TENDER NOTES AT PAR (and have been since Dec. 17, 1862,) for the rent of my Handsome Building, corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel bound to announce for the benefit of the public at large, that

JACOB MAYER,

Leased the building of me on the 17th day of Dec. 1862, for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and it was understood the rents were CASH. Since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly, under protest for the rent of the

CITY OF PARIS STORE,

Making less than two-fifths of the real value that Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in COIN, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he is, who takes such undue advantage of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see what it costs to have such a tenant.
